SUPPLEMENT

1. An Armored Regiment stationed in Opole (Opeln) has about sixty tanks of the T-34 type. The men are quartered in barracks in western Opole. War-time Soviet officers are employed as instructors and are to be demobilized and replaced by new 1921-26 classes. Between 8 and 18 July large-scale exercises of the regiment, combined with tank firing practice, took place on the artillery range at Laubinowice.
2. An Anti-tank Artillery Regiment is stationed at Pszczyna. The men are quartered in factory buildings at Mlynarska Street.
3. The 14th Horse Artillery Regiment (?) and a Cyclist Regiment are stationed in Bialystok on Czestochowska Street.
